

IMPORT MANAGER AND PRODUCT DEVELOPER

Under the supervision of the VP Product Development, your mission will be to assist him in the various tasks of import and product development

TASK DESCRIPTION:

- Support product development requests and follow up on each of them
- To be the link between the graphic department, the vice-president and the factories
- Understand and analyze the costs of each product, while negotiating with factories, according to customer requests
- Prepare cost analyzes to maintain or improve gross margins.
- Ensure products meet quality standards and requirements.
- Monitor the progress of production and make sure that it is working properly
- Perform other assigned tasks.

DESCRIPTION OF QUALIFICATIONS:

- University degree in marketing, administration, design or equivalent experience.
- Minimum 5 years' experience in development (fabric products an asset)
- Working experience with foreign provider
- Bilingualism (French / English)
- Excellent verbal and written communication skill in both languages
- Proficiency in the Office suite (Access, Excel, Word)
- Ability to work multiple files and / or projects simultaneously
- Team spirit
- Sense of organization, fashion and business
- Ability to communicate clearly and effectively messages and goals of the company
- Have a high sense of detail and precision

To apply, please send your resume to this email address: emploi@holiday.ca

PS: Note that our system does not accept postings via Hotmail