

Senior photographer

Under the supervision of the Vice President Product Development, the required person will:

Tasks description :

- Manage from concept to production to editing all the photography needs of products including lifestyle
- Manage from concept to production to editing all the video needs of products
- Manage studio equipment and calendar of requests
- Manage Photo Image Library for Web

Primarily works in a photo studio environment.

Equipment used: high resolution camera, lighting system and Macintosh Computer

Skills:

- Degree or other formal training in photography or similar field
- 3-5 years working in a professional photo/video studio working with consumer products
- Photoshop proficient
- Knowledge of different professional studio cameras and lighting equipment
- Ability to style out, light and photograph consumer products
- Set lighting and resolution to reduce moiré patterns on fabric
- Use Photoshop to accurately color match products
- Silhouette products using Clipping Paths for use on different color backgrounds
- Must be able to deliver a complete final image with product color retouched and clipping paths in place
- Experience managing a team/function
- Ability to manage high volumes of workflow including prioritization, planning and task delegation under tight deadlines
- Is able to offer creative ideas for lifestyle settings to be used on product packaging and online

Qualities:

- Personal qualities of integrity, credibility and commitment
- A positive, upbeat attitude
- Attention to detail and deadline oriented
- Creative and able to bring new ideas and solutions to drive the business forward
- Demonstrated ability managing multiple activities and projects successfully

To apply, please send your resume to this email address : emploi@holiday.ca